Abram and Lot: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Genesis 13

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: Abram and his nephew Lot had so many cows and sheep that the land could not hold them all. The men who took care of their animals began to fight. Abram said, "Let there be no strife... for we be brethren." That means, "Let's not fight. We are family." He let Lot choose first. Lot chose the land by the Jordan River, with water everywhere. Then God told Abram to look all around, and promised to give him all the land he could see.

I can be a peacemaker. I can stop the fighting and let others go first.

Talk about it at home

1. Why did Abram and Lot have to move apart? (Read Genesis 13:6.)
2. What did Abram say to stop the fighting? (Read Genesis 13:8.)
3. When do we argue at home? How can we let each other go first this week?

Draw it: two tents far apart, with cows and sheep by each one.

Learn the memory verse together (strife = fighting, I pray thee = please, brethren = family):

"And Abram said unto Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen; for we be brethren."

Genesis 13:8 (KJV)
