Memory verse

"And Abram said unto Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen; for we be brethren." Genesis 13:8 (KJV)

Think about it

Answers will vary (let someone go first, share, speak kindly, stop an argument). Help kids see that Abram cared more about peace than about getting the best land (Genesis 13:8–9), and God still promised him all the land he could see (Genesis 13:15).

For the teacher

Time: about 20 minutes · Ages: grades 3–5

- Bibles: each child (or each pair) needs a King James Bible open to Genesis 13.
- Old Bible words explained: substance = riches, bear = hold, strife = fighting, herdmen = men who care for cattle, I pray thee = please, brethren = family, separate thyself = go a different way, beheld = saw, seed = children and grandchildren, dwelt = lived.
- Talk about it: Abram said, "Let there be no strife... for we be brethren" (Genesis 13:8), and God told him, "all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it" (Genesis 13:15). Ask kids to share their "think about it" answers.
