Peter and Cornelius: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Acts 10

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: Cornelius loved God and sent for Peter. God showed Peter a sheet full of animals and taught him not to call any person unclean. Peter told Cornelius about Jesus, and God gave them all the Holy Ghost. They spoke with tongues, and Peter told them to be baptized in the name of the Lord.

God loves every person the same.

Talk about it at home

1. What came down from heaven in Peter's vision? (Read Acts 10:11–12.)
2. What happened while Peter was still talking? (Read Acts 10:44.)
3. Who do we know who might feel left out? How can we be kind to them this week?

Draw it: happy faces of people God loves, with your own face in the middle.

Learn the memory verse together (perceive = understand, no respecter of persons = loves every person the same):

"Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:"

Acts 10:34 (KJV)
