Samuel Anoints David: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · 1 Samuel 16

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: God sent Samuel to Jesse in Bethlehem with a horn of oil to anoint the next king. Samuel looked at Jesse's son Eliab, but God said, "the LORD looketh on the heart." Seven sons passed by, and God had not chosen them. The youngest, David, was out keeping the sheep. They sent for him, and God said, "This is he." Samuel anointed David with the oil.

God looks on the heart, and everyone matters to Him.

Talk about it at home

1. What does God look at? (Read 1 Samuel 16:7.)
2. What was David doing when Samuel asked for him? (Read 1 Samuel 16:11.)
3. Who is someone that gets left out? How can we be kind to them this week?

Draw it: In the box, draw a big heart. Inside it, draw David with his sheep.

Learn the memory verse together (countenance = face, stature = how tall, seeth = sees, looketh = looks, outward appearance = the outside):

"But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart."

1 Samuel 16:7 (KJV)
