Deborah and Barak: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Judges 4

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: A cruel king and his captain Sisera, with 900 iron chariots, hurt God's people for 20 years, so they cried to the LORD. Deborah, a prophetess, judged Israel under a palm tree. She told Barak what God commanded, and Barak would only go if she went too. Deborah went, and she said, "is not the LORD gone out before thee?" God won the battle for His people.

God goes before me, so I can obey Him with courage.

Talk about it at home

1. Where did Deborah sit when people came to her? (Read Judges 4:5.)
2. What did Deborah say to Barak on the day of the battle? (Read Judges 4:14.)
3. What is something hard we can do this week, knowing God goes before us?

Draw it: Deborah sitting under her palm tree.

Learn it together (up = get up and go; delivered into thine hand = given you the win; gone out before thee = gone ahead of you):

"And Deborah said unto Barak, Up; for this is the day in which the LORD hath delivered Sisera into thine hand: is not the LORD gone out before thee? So Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him."

Judges 4:14 (KJV)
