The Valley of Dry Bones: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Ezekiel 37:1–14

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: God set Ezekiel down in a valley full of very dry bones and asked, "can these bones live?" God told him to speak His word to the bones. As Ezekiel spoke, the bones came together, bone to his bone. When breath came into them, they lived and stood up upon their feet. God promised His people, "shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live."

God can make dry things live, so I listen to His word.

Talk about it at home

1. What did God ask Ezekiel? (Read Ezekiel 37:3.)
2. What happened when the breath came into them? (Read Ezekiel 37:10.)
3. How can our family listen to God's word this week?

Draw it: the valley between two hills, with wind blowing in from all four corners.

Learn it together (prophesy = speak God's words, ye = you):

"Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD."

Ezekiel 37:4 (KJV)
