Queen Esther: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Esther 1–10

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: Esther became queen. Wicked Haman made a plan to destroy all of Esther's people, the Jews. Mordecai asked Esther to go to the king, but anyone who went in without being called could die, unless the king held out his golden sceptre. Esther and her people fasted for three days. Then Esther bravely went in, and the king held out the sceptre! Esther told the king about Haman's plan, and her people were saved.

God can help me be brave and stand up for others.

Talk about it at home

1. What did Esther ask her people to do before she went to the king? (Read Esther 4:16.)
2. What did the king hold out to Esther? (Read Esther 5:2.)
3. Who is someone you could stand up for or help this week?

Draw it: In the box, draw a crown and the king's golden sceptre. Color them yellow.

Learn the verse (holdest thy peace = stay quiet, enlargement and deliverance = help and rescue, who knoweth = who knows):

"For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

Esther 4:14 (KJV)
