Think about it

Answers will vary. The Samaritan helped even though it cost him time and money (Luke 10:34–35). Let kids share real, everyday ways to show mercy, like including someone who is left out, helping a brother or sister, or being kind to someone who is hard to be kind to. Remind them that with strangers, the best way to help is to tell a trusted grown-up.

For the teacher

Time: about 20 minutes · Ages: grades 3–5

- Bibles: each child (or each pair) needs a King James Bible open to Luke 10.
- Old Bible words explained: tempted = tested, inherit = receive, raiment = clothes, compassion = feeling sorry and wanting to help, beast = riding animal, on the morrow = the next day, pence = coins, host = the man in charge of the inn, shewed = showed, likewise = the same way.
- Talk about it: Jesus turned "Who is my neighbour?" into "Who was a neighbour?" (Luke 10:29, 10:36). Ask kids to share their "think about it" answers.
- Teach the story first: use the free Good Samaritan Sunday school lesson at vbshq.com/lessons/good-samaritan-lesson.
