The Great Supper: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Luke 14:15–24

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: Jesus told about a man who made a great supper and invited many people. When it was ready, his servant said, "Come; for all things are now ready." But they all made excuses: a field, some oxen, a wedding. So the master sent his servant to bring in the poor, the maimed, the halt and the blind, and there was still room. Then he sent him out to the highways and hedges, "that my house may be filled."

God invites everyone. When God calls, I will come!

Talk about it at home

1. What did the servant say to the people who were invited? (Read Luke 14:17.)
2. What did the servant say after he brought in the poor and the blind? (Read Luke 14:22.)
3. Who could our family invite to church this week?

Draw it: In the box, draw a long table with bread on it, and draw yourself and a friend at the table. There is room for you!

Learn the memory verse together (bidden = invited):

"And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready."

Luke 14:17 (KJV)
