Hagar and the God Who Sees: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Genesis 16:6–13; 21:14–20

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: Hagar ran away into the wilderness, but the angel of the LORD found her by a fountain of water. She called the LORD "Thou God seest me." Years later, Hagar and her son were in the wilderness, and the water was all gone. "God heard the voice of the lad." God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water.

God sees me, and God hears me.

Talk about it at home

1. What did Hagar call the LORD? (Read Genesis 16:13.)
2. What did God do when He heard the voice of the lad? (Read Genesis 21:17–19.)
3. What can we tell God this week, knowing He sees and hears us? (Read Psalms 34:15.)

Draw it: Hagar's bottle full of water beside the well of water God showed her.

Learn it together (spake = spoke, thou = you, seest = see, seeth = sees):

"And she called the name of the LORD that spake unto her, Thou God seest me: for she said, Have I also here looked after him that seeth me?"

Genesis 16:13 (KJV)
