Abraham and Isaac: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Genesis 18, 21 and 22

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: God told Abraham and Sarah they would have a son, even though they were very old. Sarah laughed, and God asked, "Is any thing too hard for the LORD?" At the very time God said, baby Isaac was born. Later God tested Abraham on a mountain. Abraham obeyed, God stopped him, and God provided a ram.

Nothing is too hard for God. God does what He says, and God provides.

Talk about it at home

1. What did God ask when Sarah laughed? (Read Genesis 18:14.)
2. What did Abraham say when Isaac asked, "Where is the lamb?" (Read Genesis 22:8.)
3. What feels too hard for us right now? Let's pray about it together.

Draw it: Abraham and Sarah's tent, with Sarah holding baby Isaac at the door.

Learn it together (appointed = set ahead of time, according to the time of life = at just the right time):

"Is any thing too hard for the LORD? At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son."

Genesis 18:14 (KJV)
