Jacob and Esau: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Genesis 25, 27, 32–33

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: Isaac and Rebekah had twin sons, Esau and Jacob. Esau traded his birthright for bread and red stew. Later Jacob wore goats' skins on his hands and told his father, who could not see, "I am Esau," to get Esau's blessing. That lie made Esau cry and so angry that Jacob had to run far away. Many years later, Esau ran to meet Jacob and hugged him, and they cried.

God wants me to tell the truth, and to be kind and forgiving.

Talk about it at home

1. What did Jacob say to his father that was not true? (Read Genesis 27:19.)
2. What did Esau do when he saw Jacob again? (Read Genesis 33:4.)
3. Is there someone in our family we need to forgive or say sorry to?

Draw it: the red stew and the bread, or the two brothers hugging.

Learn it together (tenderhearted = having a soft, caring heart, for Christ's sake = because of Jesus):

"And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."

Ephesians 4:32 (KJV)
