

Jesus Loves the Little Children: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Mark 10:13–16

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: People brought young children to Jesus so He would touch them. But Jesus' disciples rebuked the people who brought them. When Jesus saw it, He was much displeased. He said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not." Then Jesus took the children up in His arms, put His hands on them, and blessed them.

Jesus loves me, and everyone is welcome.

Talk about it at home

1. What did the disciples do when people brought children to Jesus? (Read Mark 10:13.)
2. What did Jesus say? (Read Mark 10:14.)
3. Who can we be kind to or invite to church this week?

Draw it: a big heart, with you inside it. Jesus loves you!

Learn the memory verse together (suffer = let, forbid them not = don't stop them, of such = people like these):

"But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God."

Mark 10:14 (KJV)
