Joseph Forgives His Brothers: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Genesis 45

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: Joseph's brothers had sold him into Egypt. Years later, when Joseph was a ruler in Egypt, they came to buy food and did not know him. Joseph sent everyone else out of the room, wept aloud and said, "I am Joseph your brother." He told them not to be sad or angry with themselves, because God sent him ahead to preserve life. Then he fell on his brother Benjamin's neck and wept, and he kissed all his brothers.

God forgives me, and I can forgive others.

Talk about it at home

1. What did Joseph ask his brothers to do? (Read Genesis 45:4.)
2. Who did Joseph say sent him to Egypt? (Read Genesis 45:8.)
3. Is there someone our family needs to forgive?

Draw it: Joseph and his brother Benjamin weeping together.

Learn the memory verse together (grieved = very sad, hither = here, preserve life = keep people alive):

"Now therefore be not grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither: for God did send me before you to preserve life."

Genesis 45:5 (KJV)
