Preschool–Grade 6

Joseph in Prison: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Genesis 40

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: Joseph was in prison, but the LORD was with him. Pharaoh's butler and baker were put in the prison too, and Joseph served them. One night they both had dreams. Joseph said, "Do not interpretations belong to God?" God showed Joseph that in three days the butler would get his job back, and it happened. Joseph asked the butler to remember him, but the butler forgot him. God never forgot Joseph.

I give God the credit, and I serve Him right where I am.

Talk about it at home

1. Why were the butler and the baker sad? (Read Genesis 40:6–8.)
2. Who did Joseph say knows what dreams mean? (Read Genesis 40:8.)
3. What good thing can our family thank God for this week?

Draw it: the vine with three branches, the grapes and Pharaoh's cup.

Learn it together (interpretation = what something means, I pray you = please):

"And they said unto him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, Do not interpretations belong to God? tell me them, I pray you."

Genesis 40:8 (KJV)

Free to print & copy for church, classroom & home · Please don't resell or re-post