Lydia: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Acts 16:11–15

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: Paul and his helpers sailed to the city of Philippi. On the sabbath they went to a river side where people prayed. Lydia was there. She sold purple, and she worshipped God. When she heard Paul, the Lord opened her heart. Lydia was baptized, and her household, and she said, "come into my house, and abide there."

The Lord opens my heart to hear His Word, so I listen and obey.

Talk about it at home

1. Who opened Lydia's heart? (Read Acts 16:14.)
2. What did Lydia do after she listened to Paul? (Read Acts 16:15.)
3. How can our family welcome someone this week?

Draw it: In the box, draw a big heart and color it purple, for Lydia, who sold purple. Inside it, draw a door that is open.

Learn the memory verse together (attended unto = listened carefully):

"And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul."

Acts 16:14 (KJV)
