Mustard Seed: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Matthew 13:31–32; 17:20

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: Jesus told a parable, a story that teaches a lesson. The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, the smallest of all seeds, that a man planted in his field. It became a tree, and the birds of the air came and stayed in its branches. Jesus also said that with faith as a grain of mustard seed, nothing is impossible.

A tiny seed becomes a tree. Trust God: nothing is too hard for Him.

Talk about it at home

1. How small is a mustard seed, and what does it grow into? (Read Matthew 13:31–32.)
2. What is faith? What did Jesus say about it? (Read Matthew 17:20.)
3. What feels too big for us? Let's pray and trust God with it this week.

Draw it: a tiny seed, and the big tree it becomes, with birds in the branches.

Learn the memory verse together (ye = you, faith = trusting God, hence = from here, yonder = over there):

"And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you."

Matthew 17:20 (KJV)
