Jesus and Nicodemus: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · John 3:1–21

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: Nicodemus was a Pharisee and a ruler of the Jews. He came to Jesus by night. Jesus told him, "Ye must be born again," born of water and of the Spirit. Jesus said being born of the Spirit is like the wind: you can hear it, but you can't see where it comes from. Then Jesus said, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son."

God loves the whole world so much that He gave Jesus. Jesus said, "Ye must be born again."

Talk about it at home

1. When did Nicodemus come to Jesus? (Read John 3:2.)
2. What did Jesus say about the wind? (Read John 3:8.)
3. What does "whosoever" mean in John 3:16? Who does God love?

Draw it: a big red heart around the whole world, because God so loved the world.

Learn it together (so loved = loved so very much, begotten = born, whosoever = anyone, believeth = believes, perish = be lost forever, everlasting = forever):

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

John 3:16 (KJV)
