Paul and Onesimus: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Philemon

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: Paul, a prisoner because of Jesus, wrote a letter to his friend Philemon. It was about Onesimus, who had been Philemon's servant and came to know the Lord through Paul. Paul sent Onesimus home and asked Philemon to welcome him as "a brother beloved." Paul even wrote, "I will repay it," if Onesimus owed anything.

Jesus makes us family, so I welcome others like family.

Talk about it at home

1. What did Paul call Onesimus? (Read Philemon 1:10.)
2. How did Paul ask Philemon to welcome him? (Read Philemon 1:16.)
3. Who can our family welcome like family this week?

Draw it: someone you can welcome like a brother or sister.

Learn the memory verse together (above a servant = more than a worker, a brother beloved = a brother you love, specially = especially, thee = you):

"Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?"

Philemon 1:16 (KJV)
