

Paul Is Shipwrecked: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Acts 27–28

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: Paul was a prisoner on a ship going to Rome. A great storm blew for many days, and no one saw the sun or the stars. The angel of God told Paul, "Fear not." God would keep every one of them alive. Paul said, "I believe God." The ship ran aground and broke apart, but some swam and the rest held on to boards and broken pieces of the ship, and all 276 people escaped safe to land on the island called Melita (today called Malta).

God keeps His word. In the storm, I can say, "I believe God."

Talk about it at home

1. What did the angel of God tell Paul? (Read Acts 27:22–24.)
2. How many people got safe to land? (Read Acts 27:37 and 27:44.)
3. What is something hard our family can trust God with this week?

Draw it: the sea, the broken ship, and everyone safe on the shore.

Learn the memory verse together (wherefore = so, sirs = men, be of good cheer = cheer up, even as it was told me = just as God said):

"Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me."

Acts 27:25 (KJV)
