The Persistent Widow: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Luke 18:1–8

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: Jesus told a story so we would always pray and not give up. In a city there was a judge who did not fear God or care about people. A widow kept coming to him to ask for help. At first he would not help her, but because she kept coming, he said he would. Jesus said God is much better than that judge: He hears His own people day and night.

I can always pray to God, and I won't give up.

Talk about it at home

1. Why did Jesus tell this story? (Read Luke 18:1.)
2. How is God different from the unjust judge? (Read Luke 18:7.)
3. What is one thing our family can pray about every day this week?

Draw it: a sun for praying in the morning and a moon for praying at night.

Learn it together (spake = spoke, ought = should, faint = give up):

"And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint;"

Luke 18:1 (KJV)
