

Peter and John Heal the Lame Man: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Acts 3

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: Peter and John went to the temple to pray. At the gate called Beautiful sat a man who had been lame, not able to walk, since the day he was born. He asked them for money. Peter had no silver or gold, but he gave what he had: in the name of Jesus, he told the man to rise up and walk. Peter took his hand and lifted him up, and right away his feet were strong. He went into the temple walking, and leaping, and praising God!

Jesus' name has power. I can give what I have, and praise God for what He does.

Talk about it at home

1. What did the man ask for? What did Peter give him instead? (Read Acts 3:6.)
2. Who really made the man walk? (Read Acts 3:16.)
3. What can our family give someone this week that costs no money?

Draw it: the gate called Beautiful, and the man walking and praising God.

Learn the memory verse together (silver and gold = money, thee = you, Nazareth = the town where Jesus grew up):

"Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk."

Acts 3:6 (KJV)

