Jacob, Rachel and Leah: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Genesis 29:1–30

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: Rachel came to a well with her father's sheep, and Jacob rolled the great stone away and gave the sheep water. Jacob loved Rachel and worked seven years for her father Laban. Laban tricked Jacob and gave him Leah, the older daughter, instead. Jacob kept his word, worked seven more years, and married Rachel too.

Love serves. I can show love by helping, and by telling the truth.

Talk about it at home

1. What did Jacob do when Rachel came to the well with the sheep? (Read Genesis 29:9–10.)
2. How long did seven years seem to Jacob, and why? (Read Genesis 29:20.)
3. How can we serve each other in our family this week?

Draw it: the well with the stone rolled away, Rachel's sheep, and you helping someone you love.

Learn it together (served = worked; they seemed unto him but a few days = the years felt short):

"And Jacob served seven years for Rachel; and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her."

Genesis 29:20 (KJV)
