

Red Sea: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Exodus 14–15

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: Pharaoh's army chased God's people to the edge of the Red Sea, and the people were scared. Moses said, "Fear ye not, stand still!" Moses stretched out his hand, and God sent a strong wind all night that split the sea. God's people walked through on dry ground with walls of water on each side. Then they sang praises to God.

God fights for me, so I can trust Him when I am afraid.

Talk about it at home

1. How did the people feel with the sea in front and the army behind?
2. What did the people walk on in the middle of the sea? (Read Exodus 14:22.)
3. What makes you afraid? Let's pray about it together this week.

Draw it: In the box, draw God's people walking through the sea on dry ground, with tall walls of blue water on each side.

Learn the memory verse together (ye = you, hold your peace = stay calm and let God work):

"The LORD shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace."

Exodus 14:14 (KJV)

