

Easter: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Matthew 27:57–28:10; Luke 24

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: Jesus died on the cross for our sins. A man named Joseph laid His body in a tomb and rolled a great stone to the door. Early on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to the tomb. There was an earthquake, and an angel had rolled the stone away! He said, "He is not here: for he is risen." The women ran with great joy, and Jesus met them on the way. Later He showed His friends His hands and feet and ate fish with them. Jesus is alive!

Jesus died for my sins and rose again, just as He said.
He is alive!

Talk about it at home

1. Who rolled away the stone? (Read Matthew 28:2.)
2. How did Jesus show His friends He was really alive? (Read Luke 24:39–43.)
3. The women ran to tell the good news. Who can our family tell this week?

Draw it: Draw the empty tomb with the stone rolled away and the sun coming up.

Learn the memory verse together (risen = alive again, lay = was lying):

"He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay."

Matthew 28:6 (KJV)
