Rhoda and Peter in Prison: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Acts 12:1–17

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: Herod the king put Peter in prison, chained between two soldiers. But the church prayed for him without stopping. God sent His angel, a light shined, Peter's chains fell off, and the iron gate opened by itself. Peter went to the house where many were praying and knocked at the gate. A girl named Rhoda knew his voice, and she was so glad that she ran in to tell everyone without opening the gate! When they opened the door and saw Peter, they were amazed.

God hears and answers prayer. I will keep on praying!

Talk about it at home

1. What did the church do while Peter was in prison? (Read Acts 12:5.)
2. What did Rhoda do when she knew Peter's voice? (Read Acts 12:14.)
3. Who can our family pray for every day this week?

Draw it: Peter knocking at the gate, and Rhoda running in to tell.

Learn it together (without ceasing = without stopping, the church = God's people):

"Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him."

Acts 12:5 (KJV)
