Talk about it: Peter was kept in prison, "but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him" (Acts 12:5). The angel of the Lord led him out, and the iron gate opened "of his own accord" (Acts 12:10). Peter came to the house of Mary, "where many were gathered together praying" (Acts 12:12).

"Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him."

Acts 12:5 (KJV)
