The Road to Emmaus: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Luke 24:13–35

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: On the day Jesus rose, two of His followers walked to a village called Emmaus. They were sad. Jesus Himself walked with them, but they did not know Him. He explained the scriptures about Himself. At evening they said, "Abide with us," and He took bread, blessed it and broke it. Their eyes were opened, and they knew Him! They hurried back to Jerusalem and heard, "The Lord is risen indeed."

Jesus is alive! I will read God's Word and tell others the good news.

Talk about it at home

1. Who walked with the two on the road? (Read Luke 24:15–16.)
2. When did they know it was Jesus? (Read Luke 24:30–31.)
3. Who can we tell that Jesus is alive?

Draw it: the table at evening, with the bread broken in two.

Learn it together (the Lord = Jesus, risen indeed = truly alive again, Simon = Simon Peter):

"Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon."

Luke 24:34 (KJV)
