The Golden Rule: Take-Home Sheet

What we learned in Sunday school today · Matthew 7:7–12

Name: _____ Date: _____

Today's story: Jesus taught the people on a mountain. He said to ask, seek and knock (Matthew 7:7). He said a father would not give his son a stone if he asked for bread. God is even better: He gives good things to them that ask Him. So Jesus said: do for other people what you want them to do for you.

God is good to me, so I treat others the way I want to be treated.

Talk about it at home

1. What three things did Jesus say to do? (Read Matthew 7:7.)
2. What does a good father give his son who asks for bread? (Read Matthew 7:9–11.)
3. What is one kind thing you want someone to do for you? Who can we do it for this week?

Draw it: something kind you will do for someone this week.

Learn the memory verse together (whatsoever = whatever, ye = you, would = want, even so = the same way):

"Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets."

Matthew 7:12 (KJV)
